THE NEW COVENANT IN CHRIST

A Survey of the New Testament

Course NT1

Study Guide

This Study Guide is based on the paperback book The New Covenant in Christ: A Survey of the New Testament by Stanford Murrell. [Course NT1 is first of several (planned) courses which use this same paperback as a text. NT1 is purposely designed to stay on a more basic level. After completing NT1, we suggest taking several of our other basic courses, or completing several years of Bible study, before starting NT2 (planned availability in 2001) or other intermediate or advanced courses.]

Please answer the questions below from the information given in the paperback text. Each chapter in the paperback corresponds to a lesson you are doing. For example, the information you need to answer the questions from the first part of lesson one in this Study Guide is found in chapter one in the paperback. Before you begin the questions, be sure and read the paperback's chapter for the lesson you are taking.

Also note that some lessons cover more than one chapter in the text. These lessons are longer. It is not necessary that you complete an entire lesson in one sitting, but we do recommend that you try to complete at least the portion of a lesson devoted to one chapter in each sitting.

Please read slowly enough so you understand what you read. It is also always good to pray before each lesson, asking the LORD for wisdom to apply what you learn to your life—and to enable you to love Him with all your mind, heart, soul, and strength... for this is the first commandment (Mark 12:30).

Response questions are intended to support a basic understanding of the content of the New Testament. These questions are required as the core part of the study.

Reflection questions go much deeper to ask you to evaluate and integrate the information from the Scriptures with your own views. These questions are important: please make your best effort to answer them, but please also realize there are no right or wrong answers. We are looking only for your best effort.

Making It Personal questions bring the biblical principles into practical application. The goal here is change in your own life toward godliness. Again, there are no right or wrong answers; we are looking only for your honesty with yourself in personal commitments.

 - B Better than average. Fluctuating between feelings of retaliation and releasing the situation to move on in life. Defensive at times; non-defensive at other times. Will consider a lawsuit. In the end, will do what is right and offer prayers and seek to be reconciled if possible. Will do good to all others given an opportunity.
 - C Average. Willing to forgive but will never forget. Less trusting in future relationships. In the end, will move on still loving the Lord, still going to church, and still faithful to the Word but always hope that no more tribulations will come.
 - D Disgraceful. Will write letters of defense. Will try to retaliate, if not in kind, in some definite way. Might leave the church for a while.

- a. In your own words, describe worship in heaven.
- b. If this is the way worship is in heaven, what priority should our own worship have now?
9. The Revelation describes the defeat of those entities which seek to hurt the Church, such as the False Beast (political power) and the False Prophet (Caesar worship). What great principle can Christians find to take comfort in?

MAKING IT PERSONAL

10. Make a chart listing in the first column the seven churches of Asia. In the second column list the problem in each church. In the third column give the promise that the Lord made to each church. In the fourth column give the Scripture reference where each promise has been given.
11. Take some time to review all the lessons of this New Testament Survey study. What new understanding have you gained about the most Holy God, His Word, and changes in your own heart through the work of the Holy Spirit?

*Thank you for taking this course.
May you be encouraged to continue your studies of God's Word.*

Reminder: Course NT1 is first of several (planned) courses which use the paperback book The New Covenant in Christ as a text. NT1 is purposely designed to stay on a basic level. After taking NT1, we suggest taking several of our other basic courses, or completing several years of Bible study, before starting NT2 (planned in 2001) or other intermediate or advanced courses.

Appendix One: Detailed Course Instructions

If more detail is helpful, please read the following instructions before you begin. These will explain the method of study and guidelines to use toward the completion of this course. Please follow these instructions carefully.

If you have any questions that the instructions do not answer, please contact your local coordinator (or Mt. Zion Bible Institute).

1. Procedure for Taking the Course

- a. The reading material for this course consists of the book provided with this study guide.
- b. Before you begin a lesson, please read completely the corresponding chapter in the related book.
- c. After reading the appropriate chapter, answer the related questions for that lesson in this study guide. The lessons in this course are “open book” exercises. This method of study often enhances learning by removing unnecessary pressure.
In addition, some questions ask for a personal response, where the answer will not be found in the reading material. In this case, we ask only for your honesty and best effort.
- d. The questions are designed to be carefully contemplated and thought through. Several of the questions are sensitive; they have to do with your heart relationship with God. So please don't rush through the answers or you will be defeating the purpose of the course! Answer all of the questions as candidly and honestly as you can. The answers are confidential.
- e. Don't go to the next question until you have answered the previous one.

2. Answer pages

Try to be concise and as clear as possible in your answers. Please write or type your answers on regular 8.5 x 11 inch (A4 metric) paper, or on the preprinted answer sheets if provided. Please write clearly and neatly, and if possible print. After completion, please store your answer sheets with these booklets for your future reference.

3. Supplies

Paper, pen, and Bible are needed to complete your assignments. The King James version is quoted, but you may use another version if you like.

4. Spiritual Preparation

Before you begin, it is important that you pray and ask God to reveal the truths that are taught in the lesson. Since you are studying spiritual principles, you need the guidance of the Holy Spirit to help you understand and obey what you learn (1 Cor. 2:10-14).

5. Completion of Assignments

- If you are taking this course with a local coordinator, please follow their instructions.
- If you are taking this course as individual independent study (non-graded), we recommend that you save your answer sheets for future reference. (Please skip the below instructions numbered 6 and 7).
- If you are taking this course as a correspondence course, you will be mailing your answer sheets to your course coordinator. Four months are allotted for the completion of this course. You may be granted an extension by contacting your course coordinator.

6. Only if Correspondent Study

Mail your answer sheets to your course coordinator: once after completing lessons 1 to 6, and again after lessons 7 to 13. Your lessons will be reviewed and returned as soon as possible. Only mail the answer sheets, not the questions. They will be graded and returned to you by regular mail. Please make sure you write your name, student number, course title, and lesson number on each answer sheet. Please see the sample page after the Table of Contents at front. Headings should be in the following format:

Your name student number course NTI lesson number

7. Written Feedback (only if correspondent study)

Spiritual success is not measured by obtaining a high grade point average, but by growth in grace, a holy life, obedience, and Christ-likeness to the glory of God alone. Therefore, the prime motivation in taking this course is to please God alone, by the actual change for good produced in one's life. There are no letter or number grades such as "A" or "100" to be earned. The grader will offer comments, suggestions, or direction from Scripture in response to the answers. Some answers will have no comments because the answer is correct or is of a personal nature and therefore has no "right" or "wrong" answer.
